

ADMISSION TO THE FIRST YEAR OF BA/BSc/BBA (Hon) PROGRAM IN LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

BA/BSc/BBA (Hon) programmes

We, at the Thapar School of Liberal Arts & Sciences, value holistic education over training students in a narrow set of skills. If you are interested in a broad range of knowledge that prepares you to be a responsible citizen in a liberal democratic society then you should take a serious look at what we have to offer. After an undergraduate degree in liberal arts and sciences from the Thapar School, you will be well prepared for 'higher education and research' path at any leading international university and also well-placed for a good career in private or governmental organizations.

Modern world has become too complex and its problems require us to address them from multiple perspectives—that's what you will learn at TSLAS. Technology is changing so rapidly in our times that by the time a student finishes training in a state-of-the-art skill it already becomes obsolete in the real world. Businesses are increasingly recognizing this fact and therefore prefer candidates with a broad holistic education for leadership roles, as a broadly educated person is found to be more nimble on her or his feet with fast changing situations.

Our program is designed in cooperation with University College Groningen, Netherlands, this reflects an amalgamation of Indian ingenuity and European elegance. Since we have partnerships with several European, US as well as Japanese and Israeli universities, you will also have opportunity to study in those universities as part of your degree requirements as well as get degrees from those universities along with ours if you fulfil the minimum credit-hour requirements at both the institutions (at Groningen you will pay the same fees for studying there as what you pay at TSLAS).

At the Thapar School you will be privileged to learn from world-class scholars in a small-size class setting. We are offering a very limited number of seats to inaugurate our program from June 2020 and looking for highly motivated high quality students irrespective of their economic circumstances.
